

Curriculum vitae

PD Dr. med. Vanadin Regina Seifert-Klauss, MD, PhD

27.3.1963	born in Munich
1969-1981	primary and secondary school in Munich and Solana Beach, Southern California
1981-1988	Medical school in Munich, Belfast, San Diego (UCSD), Boston (Harvard)
1989-1990	Internship in obstetrics and gynecology (Frauenklinik der TU München and I. Frauenklinik der LMU München)
1990-1993	Fellowship in reproductive endocrinology (IVF-department, I. Frauenklinik der LMU München) Medical dissertation on: „Kinetic studies on the uptake of conjugated steroids by cells“ (under Prof. Dr. Dr. E. Kuss, I. Frauenklinik der LMU München)
1993-1995	Study coordinator for the Munich Tumorzentrum (oncologic studies)
1996-1999	Residency training in obstetrics and gynecology, Frauenklinik der TU München, Klinikum rechts der Isar
1999	Board certification for obstetrics and gynecology
1999	Board certification for gynecological endocrinology and reproductive medicine (Fakultative Weiterbildungsprüfung)
2001	Appointed consultant and junior staff lecturer for obstetrics and gynecology, Frauenklinik der Technischen Universität München (Direktorin: Prof. Dr. med. Marion Kiechle)
2002	Head of the endocrine outpatient-clinic and scientific working group on osteoporosis, Frauenklinik rechts der Isar
3/2006	Training certificate for gynecological endocrinology and reproductive medicine from the Bavarian chamber of Medical doctors (Weiterbildungsbefugnis)
6/2008	Habilitation medical faculty, TU München
10/2008	Associate professor (Lehrbefugnis), TUM
10/2009	Appointed Head of gynecologic endocrinology and reproductive medicine cooperation group
1/ 2010	Appointed founding Head of the IOZ (interdisciplinary osteoporosis center), Klinikum rechts der Isar

Scientific grants and awards:

1982-1988	German national scholarship foundation (Studienstiftung d. dt. Volkes)
1992	Young investigator award by the Bavarian society of obstetrics and gynecology
1995 and 2001	Research grants by the Technical University of Munich (TUM)
2004/2005	PhD-Grant by the German government (Habilitation -Stipendium)

Munich, July 23rd, 2011

PD Dr. med. Vanadin Seifert-Klauss